

CNN's Rick Sanchez Discusses Panel Finding Gov Sanford Broke the Law 37 Times (Video)

Evans Politics, November 25, 2009

CNN's Rick Sanchez Discusses Panel Finding
Gov Sanford Broke the Law 37 Times

See Sanford Faces 37 Charges on State Ethics Laws, The New York Times, November 23, 2009, by the Associate Press:

"COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) -- Gov. Mark Sanford is accused of breaking 37 ethics laws regarding campaign finances and travel, including using taxpayer money for high-priced airplane tickets that took him around the world and to Argentina for a rendezvous with the woman he once called his 'soul mate.'"

UPDATE: See Sanford Impeachment Considered, The New York Times, November 24, 2009, by Shaila Dewan:

"COLUMBIA, S.C. ? Over the protests of Gov. Mark Sanford?s lawyers, South Carolina lawmakers on Tuesday began the preliminary steps of a process that could lead to the governor?s impeachment and removal from office."